

Many Thanks For Happy Trails Warm Welcome At The Crooked River All-Nations Pow Wow

During the weekend of Sept. 9th & 10th, our Native American friends warmly welcomed Happy Trails and a handful of our rescued animals at the Crooked River All Nations Pow Wow.

Visitors stopped by the Happy Trails display to learn more about our animal rescue work and to meet our community representatives, including Natasha and Odessa the goats, Gershwin and Sabastian, ex-cockfighting roosters, Francis the goose, and tiny Kachina, the mini horse.

Many visitors that weekend learned about the many animal abuses and neglect situations that we deal with at Happy Trails, how the animals come to our program, and about the court proceedings that accompany each case.

Our Happy Trails volunteer crew donated their time to meet and greet guests, sell Happy Trails logo apparel, and helped folks pet the rescued animals safely. They also spent their day providing the animals with fresh water, giving them time-outs to rest behind the tents, and making sure that they were staying dry in the midst of several rainy spells.

We truly appreciated this opportunity to work hand-in-hand with the Native Community to provide education and to spread awareness of the plight of the farm animals and horses.

And a big shout out to all of you who took the time to come out and visit the Happy Trails crew, the animals, and to join in the Pow Wow celebration. It was great to see everyone and to have received such a warm welcome!

We have some truly wonderful photos from that magical weekend — hope you enjoy them!
